Article 3 - Headquarters of the Central Committee

The headquarters of the Central Committee shall be in the Emirate.

Article 4 - Objectives of the Central Committee

The Central Committee aims at achieving the following objectives:

1. Allowing Employees to file grievance against the final decisions and administrative procedures that affect their legal positions and situation as well as other occupational affairs.
2. Ensuring the achievement of justice, impartiality, job satisfaction, and stability regarding the employees' employment conditions.
3. Promoting the principle of legality by adhering to the provisions of the legislation governing public service, and ensuring compliance with proper standards of professional conduct.

Article 5 - Appointment of the Chairman and Determination of his Competencies a- The Central Committee shall have a Chairman who shall be appointed by a decision of the Chairman of the Executive Council.

b- The Chairman shall be in charge of the overall supervision of the Central Committee, and shall ensure that it achieves its objectives. To this end, he may exercise the following duties and powers:

1. Approve the general policy of the Central Committee as well as its operational and development plans.
2. Approve the draft annual budget and final account of the Central Committee, and submit them to the competent authorities for approval.
3. Propose the Organisational Structure of the Central Committee and submit it to the competent authorities for approval.
4. Verify whether the Central Committee performs its duties as per the performance indicators that are approved thereby in this regard.
5. Approve the decisions on the organisation of the work of the Central Committee from the administrative, financial and technical aspects.
6. Submit annual and special reports to the Chairman of the Executive Council regarding the Central Committee's activities, performance, and accomplishments.
7. Represent the Central Committee before third parties, and conclude the contracts and agreements deemed necessary for enabling it to achieve its objectives and exercise the competencies entrusted thereto.
8. Any other duties deemed necessary to enable the Central Committee to achieve its objectives, assigned by the Ruler or the Chairman of the Executive Council.

Article 6 - Executive Body

The Central Committee shall have an executive body consisting of a Director and a number of legal and administrative employees appointed by the Chairman, to whom the provisions of Dubai Law No. 8/2018 and the decisions issued pursuant thereto shall apply.

Article 7 - Competencies of the Executive Body

The Executive Body shall exercise the following powers and functions:

1. Preparing the general policies and the operational and development plans of the Central Committee, and submitting them to the Chairman for approval.
2. Preparing the draft annual budget and closing account of the Central Committee, and submitting the same to the Chairman for approval, in preparation for their approval by the competent authorities in the Emirate in accordance with the legislation in force.
3. Approving the decisions related to the organisation of the work of the Central Committee from the administrative, financial and technical aspects, and submitting them to the Chairman for approval.

4. Considering the draft legislation referred to the Central Committee by the relevant government entities in the Emirate and providing its comments thereon.
5. Proposing amendments to the legislation relevant to the Central Committee's fields of competence and submitting the same to the Chairman in preparation for their referral to the competent authorities to take the adequate measures.
6. Receiving the grievance filed by employees, verifying their compliance with the requirements and procedures set out in this Decree, and taking the necessary measures in relation thereto, including their referral to the Grievance Committee.
7. Providing administrative and technical support to the Committee Deciding on Grievances.
8. Providing the data and information requested by the Chairman of the Committee Deciding on Grievances.
9. Preparing annual reports about the Central Committee's performance and submitting them to the Chairman.
10. Maintaining and archiving documents and records related to the grievance, in accordance with the regulations in force at the Central Committee.
11. Establishing, operating, and managing the electronic systems and applications of the Central Committee.
12. Promoting legal awareness and culture related to the competencies of the Central Committee.
13. Any other duties or powers related to enabling the Central Committee to achieve its objectives, as assigned to it by the Chairman.

Article 8 - Financial Resources of the Central Committee

The financial resources of the Central Committee shall consist of the appropriations allocated to it in the general budget of the Government of Dubai, in addition to any other resources approved by the Chairman of the Executive Council.

Article 9 - Formation of the Committee Deciding on Grievances a- Grievance submitted to the Central Committee shall be considered and decided thereon by a committee named "Committee Deciding on Grievances".

b- The Grievance Committee shall consist of a Chairperson, a Vice Chairperson, and a number of members having expertise in legal and human resources fields, to be appointed by a decision of the Chairman of the Executive Council. Its membership shall include representatives of the General Secretariat of the Executive Council, the Supreme Legislation Committee in the Emirate, and the Dubai Government Human Resources Department. Membership shall be for a term of (3) years that may be renewed for similar periods.

c- The Grievance Committee shall have a Rapporteur to be appointed by a decision of the Chairman, for the purpose of coordinating to hold the Committee's meetings, preparing its agenda, recording the minutes of its meetings, monitoring the implementation of its decisions and recommendations, and undertaking any other duties assigned by the Chairman of the Committee Deciding on Grievances.

d- The provisions of aforementioned Dubai Decree No. 1/2023, and the decisions issued pursuant thereto, shall apply to all matters relating to the governance of the work of the Committee Deciding on Grievances, the mechanism for managing its meetings, and the duties of the Committee's Chairman and members, as well as other provisions related to the governance of its activities.

Article 10 - Competencies of the Committee Deciding on Grievances a- The Committee Deciding on Grievances shall consider and decide on the grievance submitted by the Employees regarding the following:

1. Final administrative decisions and procedures related to any of the following:
    a- Disciplinary sanctions.
    b- Annual performance evaluation.
    c- Transfer, assignment or secondment.
    d- Promotion in cases where preference shall be exercised among Employees to determine the most eligible.
    e- Termination of service or suspension of work.
    f- End-of-service gratuity, and the allowances, benefits, and employment-related entitlements prescribed under the applicable legislation.
    g- Administrative procedures violating the Human Resources Legislation.
2. Failure of the Government Entity to take any decision or action that it is required to take pursuant to the Human Resources Legislation.

b- The following does not fall under the competencies of the Central Committee:

1. Any grievance relating to working hours, job grade, job category, or salaries.

2. Any grievance considered before any competent judicial authority or the subject-matter thereof has been subject to a final court decision.
3. Any grievance related to the termination of service or the amendment of an Employee's legal status by a decision of the Ruler or the Chairman of the Executive Council.
4. Any grievance that shall be considered by the Grievance Committee that is formed at the Financial Audit Authority as per the provisions of Dubai Law No. 4/2018.

Article 11 - Duties of the Chairman of the Committee Deciding on Grievances a- The Chairman of the Committee Deciding on Grievances shall undertake the following duties and powers:

1. Presiding over and organising the Committee's meetings in a manner that ensures members effectively participate in expressing their opinions on grievances submitted by Employees, and taking the necessary decisions thereon.
2. Approving the meetings' schedules and agendas of the Committee Deciding on Grievances, taking into account any new matters presented by its members.
3. Ensuring that the members of the Committee Deciding on Grievances are provided with the necessary information and documents to enable them to review the grievances submitted to it, and ensuring that new members receive an introductory program on the role and competencies of the Committee Deciding on Grievances.
4. Resolving any differences of opinion that may arise among the members of the Committee Deciding on Grievances, in order to reach decisions and recommendations that are consistent as much as possible.
5. Submitting periodic reports to the Chairman on the work of the Committee Deciding on Grievances and the decisions it has taken.
6. Any other obligations entrusted by the Chairman and deemed necessary for the performance of the assigned competencies.

b- The Deputy-Chairman of the Committee Deciding on Grievances shall exercise the duties and powers of the Chairman in the event of their absence or vacancy of their position for any reason.

Article 12 - Duties of the Members of the Committee Deciding on Grievances

Members of the Committee Deciding on Grievances shall abide by the following:

1. To effectively contribute to the consideration and adjudication of grievances referred to the Committee Deciding on Grievances, in order to express opinions thereon in an objective manner, and to ensure participation in decision-making with impartiality.
2. To assume the obligations entrusted thereto with due care and diligence.
3. To work in coordination with the Chairman and members of the Committee Deciding on Grievances.
4. To attend the meetings of the Committee Deciding on Grievances regularly, and not to be absent except for a reason deemed acceptable by its Chairman.
5. To provide the Chairman and members of the Committee Deciding on Grievances with any information or data they have as deemed relevant to the grievances under consideration by said Committee.
6. To attend seminars and workshops related to the grievances for the purpose of acquiring technical skills and expertise.
7. To meet the performance indicators approved by the Chairman.
8. Any other obligations determined by the Chairman of the Committee Deciding on Grievances or the Chairman.

Article 13 - Financial Remuneration of the Committee Deciding on Grievances

A remuneration shall be disbursed to the Chairman, members and Rapporteur of the Committee Deciding on Grievances, and the amount thereof shall be determined as per the provisions of aforementioned Dubai Executive Council Decision No. 3/2023.

Article 14 - Grievance Deadline

a- The grievance deadline shall be 14 working days starting from:

1. The day following the date on which the party filing the grievance is notified in writing of the decision of the Grievances and Complaints Committee.
2. The day following the termination of the period within which the Grievances and Complaints Committee was required to decide on the grievance submitted to it, in accordance with the Human Resources Legislation applicable to the concerned government entity.

b- The Committee Deciding on Grievances may not accept the grievance in case it is filed after the deadline determined in Paragraph (a) of this Article, unless the grievant presents a justification explaining the reason of not filing the grievance within the determined deadline.

Article 15 - Grounds of the Grievance

A grievance submitted to the Central Committee shall be based on one or more of the following grounds:

1. Incompetence.
2. Violation of the applicable legislation or error in their application or interpretation.
3. Not taking into consideration the essential procedural formalities required by virtue of the valid legislation.
4. Abuse of power.
5. Deviation from the fulfilment of the requirements of the public interest.
6. Excessiveness in imposing disciplinary sanctions.
7. Issuance of the decision or procedures against which grievance is filed without an existing and valid reason.

Article 16 - Filing Grievance

a- The grievance shall be submitted to the Central Committee, as per the forms, mechanisms and procedures approved thereby in this regard.

b- The Grievance shall include the following information:

1. The name, position, address, and contact information of the grievant.
2. The name and address of the Government Entity against which grievance is filed.
3. Decision or procedure against which grievance is filed, and the date of its notification to the grievant.
4. The grounds of the Grievance, with supporting documents.
5. The requests of the party filing grievance.
6. The names of witnesses whose testimony is relied upon by the grievant to prove the grievance, if any.

c- The Central Committee shall rely on copies of written data submitted and attached to the grievance. As for documents, records, and files that may not be notified or delivered to the concerned parties by the Government Entity, it is sufficient to refer to them clearly and specifically.

d- The Executive Body shall prepare the grievance file, which shall include all documents and records submitted by the party filing grievance. It may request any additional data or information from the party filing grievance within the period it specifies. This period shall not be counted as part of the grievance deadline in case the party filing grievance provides the Central Committee with the requested data and information within that period.

e- The party filing grievance may request the addition of any facts or data that arise after the submission of the grievance to the Central Committee, and that may support the grievance, provided that this is done before the Committee Deciding on Grievances issues its decision thereon.

f- The party filing grievance may assign another person to submit the grievance to the Central Committee on their behalf, pursuant to a legal power of attorney that is certified by a Notary Public.

Article 17 - Notification and Referral a- The Executive Body shall inform the Government Entity against which grievance is filed, with all relevant papers and documents, within 5 working days from the date of submitting the grievance to the Central Committee.

b- The Government Entity against which the grievance is filed shall respond to the grievance within (10) working days from the date of its notification thereof. This period may be extended for a similar duration by a decision of the Chairman or his delegate. In the event that the Government Entity fails to respond within the granted period, the Committee Deciding on the Grievance may consider the grievance in accordance with the procedures set out in this Decree.

c- The Executive Body shall refer the grievance, together with all related documents, including the response received from the Government Entity against which the grievance is filed, if any, to the Committee Deciding on Grievances to consider it and issue a decision thereon in accordance with the rules and procedures set out in this Decree.

d- If the Committee Deciding on Grievances deems it necessary for either party of the grievance to appear before it in person or by audio-visual means, they shall be notified of the date of the hearing session at least (3) working days prior to its convening.

e- The notifications referred to in this Article shall be made by any means of communication approved by the Chairman in this regard.

Article 18 - Rejecting the Grievance in Form a- The Committee Deciding on Grievances shall decide to reject the grievance in form, before considering its subject-matter, if it proves any of the following:

1. That it does not fall under the competence of the Committee Deciding on Grievances as defined under this Decree.
2. That the grievance was filed to the Central Committee after the prescribed deadline, taking into consideration the provisions of paragraph (b) of Article (14) of this Decree.
3. That a decision was previously issued on the same subject-matter by the Committee Deciding on Grievances or the Judiciary.
4. Absence of legal standing or interest in the grievance.

b- The decision of the Committee Deciding on Grievances on the rejection of the grievance in form, in accordance with the provisions of paragraph (a) of this Article, shall be final.

Article 19 - Attendance of the Parties to the Grievance a- If requested by the Committee Deciding on Grievances to attend, the grievance shall appear in person or through a representative by virtue of a notarised legal power of attorney, on the date determined for the hearing session.

b- The Government Entity against which the grievance is filed shall, upon the request of the Committee Deciding on Grievances, designate a representative it deems appropriate to appear before the Committee to express its opinion, submit its arguments, and provide supporting information and documents.

Article 20 - Failure to Attend

In case either party of the grievance fails to attend any session of the Committee Deciding on Grievances, of which they have been duly notified to attend, this shall not prevent the continuation of the consideration of the grievance and the issuance of a decision thereon in accordance with the provisions of this Decree.

Article 21 - Suspension of the Consideration of the Grievance

If, in the course of considering a grievance, the Committee Deciding on Grievances considers that its subject-matter involves a criminal offence, it shall notify the Chairman accordingly. The Chairman shall then notify the Government Entity against which the grievance is filed of this matter so that it may take the necessary legal action. The Chairman of the Committee Deciding on Grievances shall suspend the proceedings of the grievance until determination of criminal liability.

Article 22 - Dismissal of the Grievance

a- The grievance shall be revoked in any of the cases below:

1. Proving that the grievant has submitted incorrect information, data, documents, or records.
2. If the grievance involves a financial violation that falls within the jurisdiction of the Financial Control Authority. In this case, the Chairman shall refer the matter to the entity against which the grievance is filed in order to take the necessary action in this regard.

b- The Committee Deciding on Grievances may dismiss the grievance in any of the cases below:

1. Failure of the grievant to attend the session after being notified of its date, without an excuse accepted by the Committee Deciding on Grievances.
2. In case the grievant refrains from providing the data or information requested by the Committee Deciding on Grievances within the specified time-frame, without an acceptable excuse.

c- The Committee Deciding on Grievances may not accept a request to reconsider a grievance that has been dismissed in accordance with the cases stipulated in paragraphs (a) and (b) of this Article.

Article 23 - Powers of the Committee Deciding on Grievances a- The Committee Deciding on Grievances shall, while considering and deciding on the grievances referred to it, exercise the following powers:

1. Hearing the statements of both parties of the grievance.
2. Reviewing the documents related to the grievance, either by itself or through any person it designates for this purpose.
3. Accepting the evidence presented thereto, evaluating the same, and assessing their relevance to the subject-matter of the grievance.
4. Requesting any documents deemed necessary.

5. Conducting inspections or supplementary investigations, either personally or through any person delegated to do so.
6. Summoning any employee of the Government Entity against which the grievance is filed to attend its sessions.
7. Inviting any witness it deems appropriate to hear their testimony, whether on its own initiative or at the request of either party to the grievance. The Committee Deciding on Grievances may also prevent any questions from being put to the witness if they are not related to the subject-matter of the grievance.
8. Seeking the assistance of experts and competent persons as deemed appropriate, without granting them the right to vote in the deliberations.

b- The Committee Deciding on Grievances may not exclude or disregard any statement, document, record, or evidence submitted to it and that may have an impact on its decision, without stating the reasons for such exclusion or disregard.

Article 24 - Sessions of the Committee Deciding on Grievances

The Committee Deciding on Grievances shall hold its sessions upon the invitation of its Chairman, or his Deputy in case of his absence, whenever necessary, either in person or via audio-visual communication. Its sessions shall be valid with the attendance of a majority of its members, provided that the Chairman or his Deputy is among them. The presiding Chair may decide to examine the grievance through oral pleadings or by deliberation, as the case may require.

Article 25 - Issuance of decisions a- The Committee Deciding on Grievances shall issue its decisions and recommendations by a majority vote of its attending members. In the event of equal votes, the chairperson of the session shall have the casting vote.

b- The decisions that are issued by the Committee Deciding on Grievances shall be reasoned.

c- The deliberations of the Committee Deciding on Grievances shall be confidential, and the final decision on the grievance shall be issued within a period not exceeding (60) days from the date of its registration. The chairperson may, in the presence of serious and valid reasons, extend this period for no more than (30) additional days.

d- A member of the Committee Deciding on Grievances who disagrees with the decision issued by the majority may record their objection to that decision in writing.

e- The decisions of the Committee Deciding on Grievances shall be registered in records to be signed by the chairperson of the session and the attending members.

f- The Committee Deciding on Grievances shall issue its decisions on procedural matters in writing, provided that such decisions include the reasons on which they are based, and are signed by the presiding Chair and the members present.

Article 26 - Correction and Interpretation of Decisions a- The Committee Deciding on Grievances may correct any material errors in its decision, either on its own initiative or at the request of either party to the grievance.

b- Either party to the grievance has the right to request the Committee Deciding on Grievances to clarify any ambiguity in its decision, and in such a case, it may issue the clarification it deems appropriate in this regard.

Article 27 - Dismissal of the Grievance

The Committee Deciding on Grievances shall decide to dismiss the grievance in any of the following cases:

1. If the party filing the grievance withdraws their grievance in writing before the Committee Deciding on Grievances issues a decision thereon, the employee may not thereafter submit any grievance on the same subject-matter unless they provide a justification acceptable to said Committee.
2. The grievance is settled amicably between the party filing grievance and the Government Entity against which the grievance is filed.
3. If the Government Entity against which the grievance is filed withdraws or revokes the decision subject-matter of the grievance at its own discretion during the consideration of the grievance.
4. Death of the party filing grievance, and absence of the interest of the heirs to continue with the grievance.

Article 28 - Notification of the Decision

The Executive Body shall notify the parties of the grievance of the decision issued by the Committee Deciding on Grievances on the subject-matter of the grievance within (5) working days from the date of its issuance.

Article 29 - Finality and Binding Nature of the Decisions of the Committee Deciding on Grievances a- All decisions issued by the Committee Deciding on Grievances on any grievance referred to it shall be final, whether in form or in terms of the subject-matter. No objection or review shall be accepted through any form of administrative appeal against such decisions, and the decisions shall be binding on the Government Entity against which the grievance is filed.

b- The finality of the decisions issued by the Committee Deciding on Grievances in accordance with paragraph (a) of this Article shall not prevent the grievant from resorting to the Judiciary to appeal the decision against which grievance is filed.

Article 30 - Enforcement of the Decisions of the Committee Deciding on Grievances a- If the decision of the Committee Deciding on Grievances includes obligating the Government Entity against which the grievance is filed to withdraw the decision subject-matter of the grievance, in whole or in part, then all legal and administrative procedures and actions taken based on the decision subject-matter of the grievance shall be deemed null and void from the date of their issuance.

b- If the decision of the Committee Deciding on Grievances includes obligating the Government Entity against which the grievance is filed to cancel the decision subject-matter of the grievance, in whole or in part, then all legal and administrative procedures and actions taken based on the decision subject-matter of the grievance shall be deemed null and void from the date of issuance of the decision of the Committee Deciding on Grievances.

c- The Government Entity against which the grievance is filed shall implement the decision issued by the Committee Deciding on Grievances within (10) working days from the date it is notified thereof, and inform the Central Committee of the measures it has taken in this regard, along with supporting documents.

Article 31 - Suspension of Execution

a- The grievant may request the Committee Deciding on Grievances to temporarily suspend the implementation of the decision until issuance of a decision on the grievance, and the following conditions shall be met to accept the grievance:

1. The request to suspend the implementation of the decision against which grievance is filed shall be related to a grievance that seeks the withdrawal or annulment of said decision.
2. The decision for which suspension of implementation is requested has not already been executed.
3. The request is based on serious and valid grounds.
4. The implementation of the decision against which grievance is filed would result in consequences that cannot be remedied.

b- The Executive Body shall refer the request to suspend the implementation of the decision subject-matter of the grievance to the Committee Deciding on Grievances within (3) working days from the date of its submission, and said Committee shall decide on that request within (3) working days from the date it is referred to it.

c- If the conditions stipulated in paragraph (a) of this Article are met, the Committee Deciding on Grievances may decide to suspend the implementation of the decision against which grievance is filed until a decision is issued on the grievance.

Article 32 - Incompetence of the Chairman or Members of the Committee Deciding on Grievances a- The Chairman or member of the Committee Deciding on Grievances shall not be able consider the grievance in any of the cases below:

1. If they are representing the Government Entity where the grievant works.
2. If the grievant is their spouse or has a familial relationship with them up to the fourth degree.
3. If they have previously provided any opinion on the subject-matter of the grievance, or participated in issuing the decision against which grievance is filed or taking the procedures against which grievance is filed.
4. In case of being a party to the grievance.
5. If they, their spouse, or their relatives up to the second degree have a dispute with the grievant.

b- The chairman or any member of the Committee Deciding on Grievances shall step aside from considering the grievance if any of the cases stipulated in paragraph (a) of this Article apply, by submitting a notice to the Chairman before the grievance is considered.

c- The Chairman or any member of the Committee Deciding on Grievances may step aside from the consideration of the grievance for reasons related thereto, and the Chairman may, in this case, approve or reject the recusal request.

d- The grievant may request the disqualification of the Chairman or any member of the Committee Deciding on Grievances from considering the grievance if any of the cases stipulated in paragraph (a) of this Article apply, by submitting a request to the Chairman at any time, whether before the first session or during the consideration of the grievance.

e- If the Chairman or any member of the Committee Deciding on Grievances is disqualified or recuses themselves as determined in this Article, the Chairman shall appoint a replacement Chairman or member by issuing a decision in this regard, if the legal quorum for the validity of the sessions of the Committee Deciding on Grievances is deemed insufficient.

f- The decision of the Committee Deciding on Grievances shall be considered null and void if its Chairman or any member thereof participated in its issuance while any of the incompetence cases stipulated in paragraph (a) of this Article apply.

Article 33 - Special Report

a- The Chairman may submit a special report to the Chairman of the Executive Council regarding any act or measure that has been taken by any Government Entity and that has prevented the Central Committee from performing its duties or from implementing any decision issued by the Committee Deciding on Grievances.

b- The Government Entity against which the grievance is filed may not take any action or measure that would prevent the Central Committee or the Committee Deciding on Grievances from performing their duties, particularly the following:

1. Impeding the procedures or investigations conducted by the Committee Deciding on Grievances, or objecting to their conduct in any way, by any official or employee of the Government Entity against which the grievance is filed.
2. Any negligence or negative attitude by any official or employee of the Government Entity against which the grievance is filed in terms of responding to requests from the Central Committee or the Committee Deciding on Grievances, or in terms of providing the necessary support for them to conduct investigations and inquiries into the grievance.
3. Not allowing the grievant or any other employee requested by the Committee Deciding on Grievances to attend its sessions.
4. Negligence or delay in implementing the decision issued by the Committee Deciding on Grievances.

c- The Central Committee may request the Government Entity against which the grievance is filed to take disciplinary measures against any of its employees proven to be uncooperative with the Central Committee or the Committee Deciding on Grievances.

Article 34 - Annual report

The Chairman shall submit an annual report to the Chairman of the Executive Council, including the following:

1. The number and type of grievances submitted to the Central Committee, and the number of decisions issued regarding them, whether by rejecting them, withdrawing the decisions against which grievance is filed, annulling them, dismissing them, or dropping them.
2. Cases where Government Entities refrain from implementing the decisions of the Committee Deciding on Grievances, along with proposed measures and actions necessary to ensure such entities comply with such decisions.
3. The work program of the Central Committee and the Committee Deciding on Grievances, along with the proposals and recommendations necessary to improve their performance, including proposals to amend the legislation related to their work.
4. General recommendations on measures that ensure the achievement of the principles of justice and fairness when examining grievances submitted to the Central Committee.

Article 35 - Confidentiality

a- The Chairman, as well as the Chairman and members and Rapporteur of the Committee Deciding on Grievances, in addition to the employees of the Executive Body, and any experts or specialists providing assistance shall keep confidentiality regarding all facts, documents, records, decisions, and information they become aware of in the course of performing their duties. This obligation shall continue even after the termination of their relationship with the Central Committee or the Committee Deciding on Grievances.

b- Whoever possesses documents, papers, or any evidence related to the grievance that are not permitted to be accessed by others shall return them to the Central Committee for archiving or handling in accordance with its approved procedures in this regard.

c- Employees of the Executive Body shall keep and archive documents, records, and any materials related to the grievance in accordance with the regulations in force at the Central Committee, in a manner that prevents unauthorised access. The Chairman shall issue internal regulations governing the disposal of documents and records related to grievances.

Article 36 - Abrogation

a- Dubai Executive Council Decision No. 41/2015[2 p.12] shall be abrogated as well as any provision in any other legislation to the extent that it is contrary to the provisions of the present Decree.

b- The regulations and decisions issued for the implementation of Dubai Executive Council Decision No. 41/2015 shall remain in force to the extent that they do not conflict with the provisions of this Decree until the regulations and decisions replacing them are issued.

Article 37 - Issuance of Implementing Decisions

Except for decisions that the Chairman of the Executive Council is responsible to issue under the provisions of this Decree, the Chairman shall issue the necessary decisions to implement the provisions of this Decree.

Article 38 - Publication and Enforcement
