Article 18 - Job Promotion

> The text of Article (18) was replaced by virtue of Article 1 of Dubai Executive Council Decision No. 109/2023 dated 15/12/2023, and by virtue of Article 1 of Dubai Executive Council Decision No. 17/2026 dated 12/05/2026, to read as follows:

a- The Employee, upon promotion to a higher Job Grade and according to the Law, shall be entitled to the Gross Salary equal to the starting salary determined for the Salary Band of the new Job Grade, or shall be entitled to a pay raise of (10%) of his Gross Salary before promotion, whichever is higher.

b- In the case of exceptional promotion by up to two Job Grades, the Employee must have obtained a performance appraisal rating of not less than "Exceeds Expectations" in the most recent performance evaluation year.

c- Notwithstanding the provisions of Paragraphs (a) and (b) of this Article, an employee occupying Grade (12) or above shall, upon promotion by one or two Job Grades, be granted the Gross Salary corresponding to the starting salary of the Salary Band applicable to the new Job Grade, or a pay raise on the Employee's Gross Salary prior to promotion, whichever is higher. Such pay raise shall range between (11%) and (20%), subject to compliance with the following controls:

1. The Position shall be among the critical or specialist positions.
2. The Employee shall possess the educational qualifications, professional experience, technical competences, and specialised skills required for the Position, which would provide added value to the Department.
3. The Employee shall have obtained a performance appraisal rating of not less than "Exceeds Expectations" during the preceding two years.
4. The Position to which the Employee is to be promoted shall be a Position that has been evaluated and approved by the Human Resources Department.
5. The Employee shall have completed at least three (3) years of service with the Department.
6. No disciplinary penalty shall have been imposed on the Employee proposed for promotion, unless such disciplinary penalty has been removed in accordance with the Law and the decisions issued thereunder.
7. The necessary financial appropriations shall be available within the Department's approved annual budget.
8. At least five (5) years shall have elapsed since the Employee's previous promotion in respect of which the pay raise provided for under Paragraph (c) of this Article was granted.
9. Any other conditions determined by the Human Resources Department pursuant to decisions issued by its Director-General in this regard.

d- If a promotion granted in accordance with the provisions of this Article results in the Employee's Gross Salary exceeding the ending salary of the Salary Band applicable to the Job Grade, the amount exceeding such ending salary shall be granted to the Employee in the form of an Allowance, payable on a monthly basis, and shall constitute an integral part of the Employee's Gross Salary for all purposes.

e- The amount of the monthly allowance referred to in Paragraph (d) of this Article shall be added to the Employee's Gross Salary in the event that the Employee's Job Grade or Salary Band is amended for any reason whatsoever.

Article 19 - Pay Raise

> The text of Article (19) was replaced by virtue of Article 1 of Dubai Executive Council Decision No. 109/2023 dated 15/12/2023, and by virtue of Article 1 of Dubai Executive Council Decision No. 17/2026 dated 12/05/2026, to read as follows:

a- The Employee shall be entitled to a pay raise as follows:

1. Ordinary pay raise that is equal to (5%) of the Gross Salary.
2. Extraordinary pay raise that is equal to (10%) of the Gross Salary.

b- Notwithstanding the provisions of Clause (2) of Paragraph (a) of this Article, an Employee occupying Grade (12) or above may be granted an exceptional financial promotion ranging from (11%) to a maximum of (20%) of the Employee's Gross Salary prior to the promotion, subject to the following conditions:

1. The Position shall be among the critical or specialist positions.
2. The Employee shall possess skills, competences, educational qualifications and professional experiences exceeding the requirements of the position.

3. The Employee shall have obtained a performance appraisal rating of not less than “Exceeds Expectations” during the preceding two years.
4. The Employee shall have completed at least three (3) years of service within the same Department.
5. No disciplinary penalty shall have been imposed on the Employee proposed for promotion, unless such disciplinary penalty has been removed in accordance with the Law and the decisions issued thereunder.
6. The necessary financial appropriations shall be available within the Department’s approved annual budget.
7. At least three (3) years shall have elapsed since the Employee’s previous promotion in respect of which the pay raise provided for under Paragraph (c) of this Article was granted.
8. Any other conditions determined by the Human Resources Department pursuant to decisions issued by its Director-General in this regard.

c- If a promotion granted in accordance with the provisions of this Article results in the Employee’s Gross Salary exceeding the ending salary of the Salary Band applicable to the Job Grade, the amount exceeding such ending salary shall be granted to the Employee in the form of an allowance, payable on a monthly basis, and shall constitute an integral part of the Employee’s Gross Salary for all purposes.

d- The amount of the monthly allowance referred to in Paragraph (c) of this Article shall be added to the Employee’s Gross Salary in the event that the Employee’s Job Grade or Salary Band is amended for any reason whatsoever.

Article 20 - Internal Candidacy

The Employee who, after passing the internal candidacy to hold any vacant position at the Department, shall be granted the starting salary of the Salary Band related to the Job Grade to which he moves, or he shall be granted a pay raise of (10%) of his Total Salary before moving to a new Grade, whichever is higher.

Article 21 - Adjustment of the Job Situation upon Obtaining an Educational Qualification

> The text of Article 21 was replaced by virtue of Article 1 of Dubai Executive Council Decision No. 109/2023 dated 15/12/2023, to read as follows:

a- An Employee who obtains a new educational qualification while in service may, in the cases stipulated in the Law, be granted the Gross Salary corresponding to the starting salary of the Salary Band applicable to the new Job Grade, or a pay raise of (20%) of his Gross Salary prior to the adjustment, whichever is higher.

b- Where it is not possible to transfer the Employee to a vacant position commensurate with the new educational qualification obtained while in service, the Employee may be granted the pay raise referred to in paragraph (a) of this Article.

Article 22 - Transfer from a Salary Band to Another

The Employee may be transferred according to the Law, from a Job Function related to a Salary Band to another Job Function related to a different Salary Band which is within the same Job Grade, provided that this is not subject to any amendment in the Total Salary paid to the Employee before his transfer even if this salary is less than the starting salary of the Position to which he is transferred, unless this transfer is due to a promotion or adjustment of job status for obtaining a new education qualification or for presenting his candidature internally for a new Position.

Article 23 - Risk Allowance

A risk allowance shall be granted to the Employee occupying any of the positions whose duties may expose him to any job risks and hazards. A decision of the Chairman of the Executive Council shall determine the Positions whose Employees shall be entitled to such allowance; such decision shall determine the amount of such allowance and the controls and rules of its disbursement as well as the cases of suspension thereof.

Article 24 - Night Shift Allowance

a- An Employee who works as per a regular night shift system shall be entitled to a monthly allowance of (25%) of his Total Salary, provided that such allowance does not exceed (AED 6000) per month.

b- The disbursement of the night shift allowance indicated in Paragraph (a) of this Article in case the Employee obtained any paid leave that is not less than (30) days, except for the periodic leave.

c- For the purposes of this Article, a night shift allowance shall be granted to the Employee as per the following conditions:

1. The Employee shall be assigned a night shift work according to a regular night shift system that is approved at the Authority. Such shift shall not be less than (4) nights per month.
2. The night shift hours shall be between 8 p.m and 7 a.m.
3. The night shift hours shall not be less than (6) hours in a single shift.

Article 25 - Provide Accommodation

The Department may provide a real estate accommodation to the Employee or may grant him an accommodation allowance, according to the conditions, cases and rules issued by a decision of the Director-General of the Human Resources Department in coordination with the Department of Finance.

Article 26 - Mobile Phone Allowance

a- Whomever occupies any Position whose duties require the use of a mobile phone, shall obtain a monthly cash allowance as follows:

1. (AED 100) for lows uses of a mobile phone for the purposes of the Position.
2. (AED 250) for medium uses of a mobile phone for the purposes of the Position.
3. (AED 500) for high uses of a mobile phone for the purposes of the Position.

b- The mobile phone use allowance indicated in Paragraph (a) of this Article shall be disbursed by a decision of the Director-General based on the following standards and controls:

1. The nature of the Position requires the use of a mobile phone to carry out its duties.
2. The duties of the Position are carried out outside the workplace or outside the official working hours.
3. The mobile phone is being continuously and not incidentally used to carry out the duties of the Position.

c- The Department may, instead of paying a mobile phone use allowance, provide the Employee whose Position a mobile phone with a call bundle with the same amount indicated in Paragraph (a) of this Article.

d- The mobile phone use allowance or the call bundle shall be suspended in any of the following case:

1. In case the Position no longer requires a mobile phone.
2. In case the transfer or the delegation of the Employee to carry out the duties of another Position without performing the duties of his original Position, and the Position to which he is transferred or delegated does not require the use of a mobile phone.
3. In case the Employee was suspended from working for any reason.

e- The Director-General shall issue an internal regulation regarding the mobile phone use allowance or the call bundle delivered to the Employees, provided the allowance, controls and rules stipulated in this Article are taken into consideration while issuing said regulation.

Article 27 - Placement

a- The Employee who are continuously serving as long as this Decision is valid, shall be placed at the Job Grades and Salary Bands indicated in the Tables indicated in Paragraph (b) of Article (6) of this Decision, according to the rules and controls stipulated by the Committee in this Article.

b- The Committee shall be formed by a decision of the Executive Council Chairman, provided that it includes representatives of the Human Resources Department, the Department of Finance and the Supreme Legislation Committee. The decision forming the Committee shall determine its competencies, its operating regulation and the mechanism of holding its meetings.

c- The following shall be taken into consideration for the placement of Employees:

1. Their acquired rights shall not be infringed, such as their Basic Salaries, general allowances and the like, even if they exceed the ending salary determined for the Salary Band of the Job Grade at which they are placed.
2. Addition of the work nature allowance and skills allowance, which were paid according to the Law of Human Resources Management of the government of Dubai No. 27/2006 and its amendments, to their Total Salaries provided that their amount is distributed in half between the Basic Salary and the general allowance.
3. Study of the premiums and allowances which were paid to the Employees who are not subject to the Law of Human Resources Management of the government of Dubai No. 27/2006 and its amendments, and approval of their addition by the Committee.
4. In case the Total Salary of the Employee before placement is less than the starting salary determined for the Salary Band of the Job Grade at which is placed, then he shall be placed according to the mechanism and durations approved by the Committee in this regard.
5. The Employee who is appointed by a temporary contract or part-time contract shall maintain the monthly salary paid thereto before placement, provided that such monthly salary is amended according to this Decision upon signing a new contract or renewing the contract signed therewith.
6. The placement of Employees to Job Grades and Salary Bands shall be performed from the date of enforcement of this Decision.
7. Any other controls and rules approved by the government in this regard.

d- The decisions issued by the Committee shall be considered final, and the Employee may not file any administrative grievance.

Article 28 - Limits of Entitlements a- The entitlement of the Employee to salaries, premiums, allowances and financial allocations shall be limited to the provisions of this Decision.

b- No premiums, allowances or financial allocations may be disbursed, regardless of their type or purpose, other than as provided for in this Decision.

c- No premiums, allowances or financial allocations stipulated in this Decision may be combined with any other similar premiums, allowances or financial allocations regardless of their types.

d- The violation of the provisions of this Article shall result in nullity, and in this case the Employee shall return all the amounts which were unduly disbursed thereto.

Article 29 - Calculation of the End-of-Service Gratuity a- The end-of-service gratuity of the Employee shall be calculated on the basis of the last Basic Salary paid thereto upon termination of his service.

b- For the calculation of the end-of-service gratuity of an Employee continuing his service, for the period of service prior to the enforcement of this Decision, the following shall be taken into consideration:

1. Regarding the Employee who was working at the Department before enforcement of the Law of Human Resources Management of the government of Dubai No. 27/2006 and its amendments, then the end-of-service gratuity for the period prior to this date shall be calculated as per the Basic Salary paid thereto by 31/07/2007 and as per the Basic Salary paid thereto on 31/12/2019 for the period between 01/08/2007 and 31/12/2019.
2. Regarding the Employee who was appointed at the Department after 31/07/2007 according to the the Law of Human Resources Management of the government of Dubai No. 27/2006 and its amendments, then the end-of-service gratuity for the period between the date of his appointment and 31/12/2019 shall be calculated according to the Basic Salary paid thereto on 31/12/2019.
3. Regarding the Employee who was subject to the human resources regulation related to his Department before applying the provisions of the Law to the Department in which he is working, then the end-of-service gratuity shall be calculated according to the mechanism prescribed by said regulation and as per the Basic Salary paid thereto on 31/12/2019.

Article 30 - Issuance of Implementing Regulations

The Director-General of the Human Resources Department shall issue any decisions deemed necessary for the provisions of this Decision, and the latter shall be published in the Official Gazette.

Article 31 - Abrogation

Aforementioned Dubai Executive Council Decision No. 15/2013 shall be abrogated. Every text in any other legislation shall be abrogated, to the extent to which it is in contradiction with the provisions of this Decision.

Article 32 - Publication and Enforcement
