Implementing Regulation of the Advocacy and Legal Consultancy Law

Chapter 1 - General Provisions

Article 1

In application of the provisions of this Regulation, the terms and expressions that appear herein shall have the same meaning stipulated in the Advocacy and Legal Consultancy Law, and the following terms and expressions shall have the meaning assigned against each, unless the context requires otherwise:

1. Law:

   The Advocacy and Legal Consultancy Law.
2. Office:

   The law office or the legal consultancy office, as the case may be.
3. Professional Register:

   The register provided for in Article (41) of this Regulation.

Article 2

A special register for law offices and a special register for legal consultancy offices shall be established at the competent administrative division at the Ministry, in which the following data shall be recorded:

1. The number of registration in the Professional Register.
2. The name of the Office, its headquarters and its branches, if any.

3. The basic data of the Office owner or the partners, the manager-in-charge, the lawyers, the legal advisors and the employees.
4. The capital and the percentages of ownership.
5. Any other data specified by the Ministry.

Article 3

The Office may establish its own website on the Internet, or on social media. The website shall be in the name of the Office in accordance with its issued licence, and it shall particularly include the following:

1. A statement of the name of the Office owner or the partners, their names, their qualifications and the level of their registration.
2. A statement of the names and level of registration of the lawyers or the legal advisors working at the Office, as well as their qualifications, experience and specialisations, if any.
3. A statement of the type of services provided by the Office.

The website or social media may not be used for advertising or promoting the Office or providing legal consultancy.

Article 4

The lawyer or legal advisor shall, prior to commencing his work, draft a written contract with his principal or client, which shall include the rights and obligations of both parties, particularly the following:

1. Identifying the parties to the contract, their data and their representatives.
2. Specifying the object and the substantive and temporal scope of the contract.
3. Determining the fees.

Article 5

The fees for the services provided by the Ministry pursuant to the provisions of the Law and this Regulation shall be determined in accordance with the attached Appendix.

Chapter 2 - Regulation of the Legal Profession

Article 6

A committee known as the "Lawyers Training and Qualification Committee" shall be established at the Ministry. A decision shall be issued by the Minister on its formation and rules of procedure. The Committee shall exercise the following competencies:

1. Proposing the training plans and programmes and continuing education programmes stipulated in the Law, and following up on their implementation.
2. Proposing the dates and implementation mechanism of the exams.
3. Proposing the fees for enrolment in the training and continuing education programmes and for taking the exams.
4. Any other relevant tasks.

Article 7

The lawyer shall pass the continuing education programme if he earns at least (24) twenty-four credit hours each year for registration in the rolls of advocates, to be calculated in accordance with Article (8) of this Regulation.

If the remaining period for the lawyer to move up the rolls is less than (11) eleven months, the credit hours shall be reduced by (2) hours per month.

Article 8

The credit hours for the continuing education programme shall be calculated as follows:

1. Attending the training courses held by the Ministry or the bodies accredited thereby. Each hour of attendance shall be equivalent to one credit hour in the programme.
2. Providing a training course within the training programmes developed by the Committee, or the continuing education programme, to be calculated at (3) three credit hours per year.
3. Publishing legal research in a peer-reviewed legal journal, or presenting a work paper at a conference or seminar, to be calculated at (3) three credit hours per year.

4. Obtaining a graduate diploma in law or a Master's degree in law, to be calculated at (12) twelve credit hours, or obtaining a PhD in law, to be calculated at (24) twenty-four credit hours.

Article 9

The number of credit hours in the continuing education programme shall only be counted after the lawyer registers them with the competent administrative division at the Ministry, accompanied by copies of the relevant certificates and reports.

Article 10

> A new paragraph was added by virtue of Article 1 of Oman Ministerial Decision No. 127/2025 dated 21/07/20255 to read as follows:

Pursuant to the provision of Clause (1) of Articles (31) and (32) of the Law, the lawyer shall take the exam (180) one hundred and eighty days before the completion of the period required to move up the rolls. The lawyer who fails the exam may retake it.

A new paragraph was added by virtue of Article 1 of Oman Ministerial Decision No. 127/2025 dated 21/07/20255 to read as follows:

Those stipulated in clauses (1) and (4) of Articles (31) and (32) of the Law may file grievance against the results of the test before the Committee, within 15 days from the date of announcement of the results, using the form prepared for this purpose after payment of the prescribed fees. The Committee may file grievance within a period that does not exceed 30 days from the date of submittal of the grievance.

Article 11

For registration in one of the rolls of advocates for those holding a Bachelor's Degree or its equivalent in law and other specialisations, the legal subjects or courses shall amount to at least (70%) seventy percent of the total number of subjects or courses according to the grade transcript.

Article 12

The applications for registration in the rolls of advocates stipulated in Article (20) of the Law shall be filed with the competent administrative division at the Ministry using the form prepared for this purpose, after payment of the prescribed fee, along with the required documents, as follows:

1. Registration in the roll of trainee advocates:

    a- A copy of the identity card.

    b- A certificate of good conduct and reputation.

    c- A Bachelor's degree or its equivalent in law, or in law and other specialisations, from a university, college or higher institute recognised in the Sultanate of Oman, provided that it is translated into Arabic by an accredited legal translation office if it is issued in another language.

    e- An equivalent certificate from the competent authority if the qualification is issued outside the Sultanate of Oman.

    f- A certificate from the competent authority to the effect that the applicant does not hold any public position in the units of the State's administrative apparatus and other public legal persons, or that he is not employed at private companies or institutions, at associations or by individuals, or engaged in any other work or profession.

    g- A certificate from the competent authority to the effect that he is not engaged in commerce, or is not the owner of or a shareholder in a company of any type or nature, except for public joint-stock companies.

    h- The law office’s approval to employ the applicant.

    i- Any other documents specified by the Committee.

2. For registration in the roll of primary court advocates and equivalent:

    a- A certificate of completion of the training programme and the exam stipulated in Article (25) of the Law, and the certificate stipulated in Clause (4) of Article (17) of this Regulation, if the applicant is a trainee lawyer.

    b- An experience certificate from the competent authority including the career progression, if the applicant is a judge or a member of the public prosecution or he has previously held a technical position at the Ministry of Justice and Legal Affairs, or he has previously held the position of assistant professor of law at recognised universities, colleges or higher institutes.

    c- An experience certificate issued by the competent authority, and a statement establishing the pleadings, appearances and lawsuits undertaken by the employee before the courts, if the applicant is registered in the Employee Register stipulated in Article (35) of the Law.

d- A copy of the employee's approved job description card, or a copy of the job duties for those working in companies, and an experience certificate from his former employment entity including a statement of the legal work he has carried out and proof of his passing the exam, if the applicant holds a legal position in the units of the State's administrative apparatus or other public legal persons or companies.

e- The documents stipulated in Clause (1) of this Article, in case of first-time registration.

3. For registration in the roll of courts of appeal advocates and equivalent:

a- A certificate from the Office in which the applicant is registered, including the legal work he has carried out, along with samples of some of that work from different years, for those registered in the roll of primary courts advocates and equivalent.

b- Proof of passing the exam and completing the continuing education programme.

c- An experience certificate issued by the competent authority including the career progression, if the applicant is a judge or a member of the public prosecution or he has previously held a technical position at the Ministry of Justice and Legal Affairs, or he has previously held the position of associate professor of law at recognised universities, colleges or higher institutes.

d- An experience certificate issued by the competent authority, along with a statement establishing the pleadings, appearances and lawsuits undertaken by the employee before the courts, if the applicant is registered in the Employee Register stipulated in Article (35) of the Law.

e- A copy of the employee's approved job description card, or a copy of the job duties for those working in companies, and an experience certificate from his former employment entity including a statement of the legal work he has carried out and proof of his passing the exam, if the applicant holds a legal position in the units of the State's administrative apparatus or other public legal persons or companies.

f- The documents stipulated in Clause (1) of this Article, in case of first-time registration.

4. For registration in the roll of Supreme Court advocates and equivalent:

a- A certificate from the Office in which the lawyer is registered including the work he has carried out, along with samples of some of that work from different years, for those registered in the roll of courts of appeal advocates and equivalent.

b- Proof of passing the exam and completing the continuing education programme.

c- An experience certificate issued by the competent authority including the career progression, if the applicant is a judge or a member of the public prosecution or he has previously held a technical position at the Ministry of Justice and Legal Affairs, or he has previously held the position of professor of law at recognised universities, colleges or higher institutes.

d- An experience certificate issued by the competent authority, along with a statement establishing the pleadings, appearance and lawsuits undertaken by the employee before the courts, if the applicant is registered in the Employee Register stipulated in Article (35) of the Law.

e- A copy of the employee's approved job description card, or a copy of the job duties for those working at companies, and an experience certificate from his former employment entity including a statement of the legal work he has carried out and proof of his passing the exam, if the applicant holds a legal position in units of the State's administrative apparatus or other public legal persons or companies.

f- The documents stipulated in Clause (1) of this Article, in case of first-time registration.

Article 13

The employee's prior period of service as an authorised representative for the competent authority prior to registration in the Employee Register stipulated in Article (35) of the Law shall be counted within the period of equivalent work required for registration in one of the rolls of advocates, subject to submitting proof of his authorisation.

Article 14

The competent administrative division at the Ministry shall examine the applications for registration in the rolls of advocates stipulated in the Law, verify the fulfilment of the required conditions and documents and present the completed applications to the Committee.

The competent administrative division at the Ministry shall notify the applicant of any missing information or documents in his application and grant him a time limit not exceeding (30) thirty days from the date of notifying him to complete the missing information or documents, otherwise the application shall be deemed null and void.

Article 15

When registering for the first time in one of the rolls of advocates, the lawyer shall sign a written oath before the Chairman of the Committee, using the wording stipulated in Article (23) of the Law, whether in person or via the electronic system established at the Ministry.

The competent administrative division at the Ministry shall record the oath in the register designated for this purpose, and shall assign a serial number accompanied with the date of signing the oath. The oath shall be kept in the lawyer's file.

Article 16

The lawyer's registration card shall be obtained via the electronic system approved by the Ministry after signing the written oath in accordance with the provision of Article (15) of this Regulation and paying the prescribed fee. The card shall be valid for (2) years.

The card shall be renewed at least thirty (30) days before its expiration, by filing an application with the competent administrative division at the Ministry via the electronic system.

Article 17

The law office that employs a trainee lawyer shall comply with the following:

1. Qualify and train the trainee lawyer by enabling him to participate in the preparation of legal memoranda and statements of claims as well as the drafting and preparation of contracts, and providing him with mentorship and advice, to hone his skills and qualify him to practise the legal profession.
2. Fulfil the rights of the trainee lawyer stipulated in the Law, this Regulation and the decisions issued in implementation thereof.
3. Enable him to participate in training courses, programmes and workshops held by the Ministry or other competent authorities.
4. Submit a certificate to the competent administrative division at the end of the training period, including the following:

    a- The trainee's ability to undertake legal research, analysis and writing.

    b- A statement of the lawsuits in which he has appeared before the courts or investigation and evidence authorities, as well as the legal memoranda and contracts in which preparation he has participated.

    c- The assessment of the trainee lawyer by the Office owner or one of the partners.

Article 18

The trainee lawyer shall perform all the work he is assigned, maintain the confidentiality of the Office and the clients, treat his colleagues respectfully and adhere to the work schedules and procedures of the Office.

Article 19

Every law office shall pay the trainee lawyer a monthly remuneration of no less than (325) three hundred and twenty-five Omani rials, provided that the trainee lawyer does not breach the obligations stipulated in the Law and this Regulation.

Article 20

The owner of the law office may not assign the trainee lawyer tasks that fall beyond the scope of training for the legal profession, or assign him any work that violates the Law, this Regulation or the training system, or affects his professional capabilities and capacity. He shall provide the trainee with a copy of the certificate provided for in Clause (4) of Article (17) of this Regulation.

Article 21

A trainee lawyer may only transfer from one law office to another after obtaining approval from the competent administrative division at the Ministry, by filing an application via the electronic system established at the Ministry. The following shall be attached to the application:

1. A statement of the reason for the transfer.
2. A certificate issued by the Office from which the trainee lawyer is to be transferred, indicating the period of training he has completed and the work he has performed during that period.
3. Approval from both the Office from which the trainee is to be transferred, and the Office to which he is to be transferred.

The competent administrative division at the Ministry shall examine the application and decide thereon within (7) seven days from the date of its filing. If said period lapses without a response, the application shall be deemed to be approved. The trainee lawyer shall apply for the amendment of his registration card within (7) seven days from the date of transfer via the electronic system established at the Ministry.

Article 22

When transferring from one law office to another, the lawyer shall notify the competent administrative division at the Ministry and apply for the amendment of his registration card within (7) seven days from the date of transfer via the electronic system established at the Ministry, provided that the approval of both the Office from which the trainee is to be transferred and the Office to which he is to be transferred is attached.

Article 23

The application for registration in the Authorised Employee Register stipulated in Article (35) of the Law shall be filed with the competent administrative division at the Ministry by the competent authority at the employee's employment entity, provided that he is an employee at the administrative division in charge of the legal affairs of the entity, or that he holds the position of expert or legal advisor at the entity. The following data and documents shall be attached to the application:

1. A copy of the appointment decision, and the approved job description card.
2. A copy of the qualification stipulated in Clause (2) of Article (36) of the Law. For holders of a Bachelor's degree or its equivalent in law and other specialisations, the legal subjects or courses shall amount to at least (70%) seventy percent of the total number of subjects or courses according to the grade transcript.

The competent administrative division at the Ministry shall examine the application after all the aforementioned documents and data have been completed and the employee has passed the required training programme, and shall refer it to the Committee to decide thereon.

Chapter 3 - Regulation of the Legal Consultancy Profession

Article 24

> The text of clause 4 of Article 24 was replaced by virtue of Article 1 of Oman Ministerial Decision No. 112/2026 dated 12/08/2026 to read as follows:

Those who are registered in the roll of legal advisors shall meet the following requirements:

1. They shall have full legal capacity.
2. They shall be of good conduct and reputation.
3. They shall hold a Bachelor's degree or its equivalent in law or in law and other specialisations, from a university, college or higher institute recognised in the Sultanate of Oman, or hold a degree in Islamic Sharia for those who have previously held judicial or public prosecution positions for a period of not less than (10) ten years.

   In any case, an equivalent certificate shall be submitted by the competent authorities if the qualification is issued outside the Sultanate of Oman.

   The text of clause 4 of Article 24 was replaced by virtue of Article 1 of Oman Ministerial Decision No. 112/2026 dated 12/08/2026 to read as follows:
4. To have at least (5) years of experience in legal work.
5. They shall not have been convicted of a felony or a crime involving moral turpitude or dishonesty, unless they have recovered their civil rights.

For those holding of a Bachelor's degree or its equivalent in law and other specialisations, the legal subjects or courses shall amount to at least (70%) seventy percent of the total number of subjects or courses according to the grade transcript.

Registration shall be forfeited by force of law from the date on which any of the conditions set forth in this Article are no longer met, and a decision to this effect shall be issued by the Committee.

Article 25

Applications for registration in the roll of legal advisors shall be filed with the competent administrative division at the Ministry using the form prepared for this purpose, after payment of the prescribed fee, along with the required documents, as follows:

1. For an Omani applicant:

   a- A copy of the identity card.

   b- A Bachelor's degree or its equivalent in law, or in law and other specialisations, from a university, college or higher institute recognised in the Sultanate of Oman, provided that it is translated into Arabic by an accredited legal translation office if it is issued in another language.

   c- A grade transcript for holders of a Bachelor's degree or its equivalent in law and other specialisations, provided that it is translated into Arabic by an accredited legal translation office if it is issued in another language.

   d- An equivalent certificate from the competent authority if the qualification is issued outside the Sultanate of Oman.

   e- An experience certificate certified by the entity where the applicant was employed.

   f- A certificate from the competent authority to the effect that the applicant does not hold any public position in the units of the State's administrative apparatus or other public legal persons, or that he is not employed at private companies or institutions, at associations or by individuals, or engaged in any other work or profession.

g- A certificate from the competent authority to the effect that he is not engaged in commerce, or is not the owner of or a shareholder in a company of any type or nature, except for public joint-stock companies.

h- A certificate of good conduct and reputation.

2. 2 - For a non-Omani applicant:

a- The documents provided for in Clause (1) of this Article.

b- A non-conviction certificate from his State of citizenship, or from his last State of employment.

c- A copy of the passport and a copy of the residence card if the registration applicant resides in the Sultanate of Oman.

The competent administrative division at the Ministry shall maintain a register for recording the names of those registered, the Offices where they are employed and the other necessary data.

Article 26

The registration card of the legal advisor shall be obtained via the electronic system approved by the Ministry after payment of the prescribed fee. The card shall be valid for (2) years.

The card shall be renewed at least thirty (30) days before its expiration, by filing an application with the competent administrative division at the Ministry via the electronic system.

Article 27

The legal advisor shall file an application with the Committee for his transfer to the roll of non-practising legal advisors if he holds a position or engages in a business that may not be combined with the legal consultancy profession, or if he ceases to practise the legal consultancy profession for a period exceeding one hundred and eighty (180) consecutive days. The application shall be filed within thirty (30) days from the date of appearance of the impediment or cessation of practice of the legal consultancy profession. In any case, the legal advisor shall be transferred to the roll of non-practising legal advisors by decision of the Committee if it is proven that he has done so without filing a transfer application with the Committee. The competent administrative division at the Ministry shall notify the legal advisor of the transfer decision, without prejudice to his disciplinary accountability.

Article 28

If the reason for transferring the legal advisor to the roll of non-practising legal advisors ceases to exist, he may file an application with the Committee to reinstate his name in the roll of legal advisors.

Article 29

An Omani legal advisor may establish a legal consultancy office either solely or in partnership with other Omani legal advisors registered in the roll of legal advisors, provided that each of them has at least five (5) years of experience in legal work.

Article 30

Foreign law offices and foreign legal consultancy offices may provide legal consultations in the Sultanate of Oman through a legal consultancy office established for this purpose either solely or in partnership with an Omani legal consultancy office, pursuant to the following conditions:

1. They shall have a good international reputation.
2. They shall have been established for at least fifteen (15) years.
3. They shall have branches in at least three (3) States outside the Sultanate of Oman.

In any case, the Ministry may determine the number of foreign law offices and foreign legal consultancy offices to be licensed to provide legal consultancy based on the needs of the labour market.

Article 31

A foreign law office and a foreign legal consultancy office wishing to provide legal consultancy in the Sultanate of Oman may keep the name of the foreign office upon obtaining a licence in the Sultanate of Oman.

Article 32

The legal consultancy office shall comply with the following:

1. Qualifying and developing its employees, and transferring legal expertise to them.
2. Appointing one or more Omani legal advisors, where the office is wholly owned by a non-Omani.

3. The legal consultancy office shall have a manager-in-charge throughout the term of the licence, provided that he is registered in the roll of practising legal advisors.

Article 33

In the event that a legal advisor's name is struck off the roll of practising legal advisors, or in the event of his death, or where it is impossible for him to practise his profession, the Committee shall appoint another legal advisor, unless the legal advisor or his heirs choose another advisor, who shall be in charge of following up on the procedures for protecting the rights of his clients. The assigned legal advisor shall submit a report to the Committee at the beginning of the assignment and upon the completion of the assigned task. The Committee shall determine the fees due to the assigned legal advisor for the work he has carried out.

Article 34

The legal advisor shall comply with the following in the practice of his profession:

1. The principles of honour, integrity and honesty in his professional and personal conduct.
2. He shall discharge all duties stipulated in the Law, or in any other law.
3. The Code of Conduct and Ethics of the Legal Consultancy Profession issued by a decision of the Minister upon the Committee's proposal.
4. He shall refrain from preparing or signing statements of claims, memoranda, appeals and claims submitted to courts of various instances and types, the Public Prosecution, reconciliation committees, administrative committees with jurisdiction, and investigation and evidence authorities, or from appearing with or on behalf of the concerned parties, or from representing them before these authorities.
5. He shall refrain from providing any assistance by expressing an opinion or advice against any person or entity that has previously consulted him on the same subject or dispute, or provided him with documents and grounds of defences, or from representing conflicting interests.
6. He shall not be an owner, a partner or registered in more than one legal consultancy office.
7. He shall refrain from providing any information or data that has come to his knowledge by virtue of his profession, unless the intent is to prevent the perpetration of a crime.
8. He shall exert his utmost effort and care in the provision of legal services.

Registration in the Register of Legal Advisors' Assistants shall be for a minimum period of (3) years. Upon expiry of such period, a Legal Advisors' Assistant may apply to have his or her registration transferred to the Register of Legal Advisors, provided that he or she meets the conditions and requirements stipulated in this Regulation.

Article 34 bis 6

The text of a new article was added under no. (34 bis 6) by virtue of Article 4 of Oman Ministerial Decision No. 112/2026 dated 12/08/2026 to read as follows:

A legal consultancy office to which a Legal Researcher or Legal Advisor Assistant is affiliated shall comply with the following:

1. The Legal Researcher or the Legal Advisor Assistant shall perform their work in the name of and under the supervision of the Legal Advisor with whose office they are affiliated, or any of the partners in the legal consultancy office.
2. Provide the Legal Researcher or Legal Advisor Assistant with the necessary training and enable them to provide legal services, and provide the care, advice and guidance deemed necessary to develop their skills and qualify them to perform their duties.
3. Enable the Legal Researcher or Legal Advisor Assistant to participate in the training courses, programmes and workshops organised by the Ministry or other competent authorities.

Article 34 bis 7

The text of a new article (34 bis 7) was added by virtue of Article 4 of Oman Ministerial Decision No. 112/2026 dated 12/08/2026 to read as follows:

Applications for registration in the Register of Legal Researchers and the Register of Legal Advisors' Assistants referred to in Article (34 bis 1) of this Regulation shall be submitted to the competent administrative division of the Ministry in the prescribed form, following payment of the applicable fee and accompanied by the required documents, as follows:

1. For registration in the Register of Legal Researchers:

   (a) A copy of the identity card.

   (b) A certificate of good conduct.

   (c) A bachelor's degree certificate, or an equivalent qualification, in law or in law and other specialisations, from a university, college or higher institute that is recognised in the Sultanate of Oman, provided that, if issued in a language other than Arabic, it is translated into Arabic by an accredited legal translation office.

   (d) A transcript of grades for holders of a bachelor's degree or equivalent qualification in law, or in law and other specialisations, provided that, if issued in a language other than Arabic, it is translated into Arabic by an accredited legal translation office.

   (e) An equivalency certificate issued by the competent authority where the qualification was obtained outside the Sultanate of Oman.

   (f) A certificate issued by the competent authority confirming that the applicant is not employed in any public position within the administrative units of the State or other public legal persons, nor employed by private companies or establishments, associations or individuals, and does not engage in any other work or profession.

   (g) A certificate issued by the competent authority confirming that the applicant does not engage in commercial activities and does not own, or hold shares in, any company, regardless of its type or nature, except public joint-stock companies.

(h) The legal consultancy office's approval of the applicant's affiliation with the office.

(i) Any other documents as may be determined by the Committee.

2. Regarding registration in the Register of Legal Counsel Assistants:

a – A certificate confirming successful completion of the training programme stipulated in Article (34 bis 3) of this Regulation, and, if the applicant is a legal researcher, a certificate from the legal consultancy office stating that the legal researcher has demonstrated the ability to conduct legal research, analysis, and writing. The certificate shall also include a statement of the legal work in the preparation of which the researcher participated, in addition to an evaluation of the legal researcher by the office owner or one of its partners.

b – Proof of practical experience in the legal field for a period of at least two (2) years, where the applicant is applying for direct registration in the Register of Legal Counsel Assistants.

c – The documents stipulated in clause (1) of this Article, if the registration occurs for the first time.

The authorities before which a Legal Researcher, Assistant Legal Advisor, or Legal Advisor practices his or her profession shall treat such person in a manner befitting the honor and professional ethics of the profession and shall provide him or her with all facilities reasonably required for the proper performance of his or her duties.

A Legal Researcher, Assistant Legal Advisor, or Legal Advisor who is subjected to serious misconduct or an infringement of his or her professional rights may submit a complaint in this regard to the Committee. Where the Committee verifies the validity of such misconduct or infringement, it shall refer the matter to the competent authority to take the necessary measures.

Chapter 4 - Establishing Civil Law Firms and Civil Legal Consultancy Firms

Article 36

The Office shall take the form of a civil company established in accordance with the provisions of this Chapter.

A lawyer may not be a partner in more than one Civil Law Firm, nor may a legal advisor, foreign law office or foreign legal consultancy office be a partner in more than one Civil Legal Consultancy Firm.

It shall be prohibited to establish a Civil Law Firm or a Civil Legal Consultancy Firm in partnership between law offices and legal consultancy offices or between lawyers and legal advisors.

Article 37

The application for establishing the firm shall be filed with the competent administrative division by the concerned party in person or by their representative pursuant to a special power of attorney to this effect, using the form prepared for this purpose, to which shall be attached the data and documents specified therein, particularly the following:

1. The basic data of the applicant.
2. A copy of the identity card.
3. A copy of the Memorandum of Association of the firm.
4. Proof of the owner's or partners' approval of the appointment of the manager-in-charge at the Office.
5. A certificate of registration of the partners in the roll of advocates or the roll of legal advisors stipulated by the Law, as the case may be.

For a Civil Legal Consultancy Firm establishment application filed by a foreign law office or a foreign legal consultancy office, the following documents shall be provided in addition to the data and documents stipulated in the first Paragraph of this Article:

1. A copy of the constituent documents in the country where the head office operates.
2. A statement of the number of branches in at least three States, along with the registration documents in those States.
3. An authorisation document from the head office of the Office certifying the authorisation of the person representing the Office in the Sultanate of Oman and stating his basic data.
4. A declaration from the head office of the firm to the effect that it assumes responsibility for the actions undertaken by the authorised representative.
5. Proof of the owner's or partners' approval of the appointment of the manager-in-charge at the Office.

All documents attached to the application shall be certified by the relevant authorities and translated into Arabic by an accredited legal translation office.

The competent administrative division at the Ministry shall examine the application, verify the fulfilment of the required conditions and documents and refer the completed application to the Committee.

The competent administrative division at the Ministry shall notify the applicant of any missing information and documents in his application and grant him a time limit not exceeding (30) thirty days from the date of his notification to complete the missing information and documents, otherwise the application shall be deemed null and void.

Article 38

The Memorandum of Association of the firm and any amendments thereto shall be made in writing and signed by the owner of the firm or by all the partners, as the case may be, otherwise the Memorandum of Association or the amendment thereto shall be deemed null and void. Neither the owner of the firm nor any partner may invoke such nullity against third parties, and the nullity shall also not be effective among the partners themselves except from the time the partner requests a ruling thereon.

Article 39

The founding lawyer(s) or legal advisor(s) shall prepare the Memorandum of Association of the firm in a manner not inconsistent with the provisions of the Law and this Regulation. The Memorandum of Association shall include the following data:

1. The name of the firm, and its headquarters.
2. The name of the firm owner or the names, nationalities and residences of the partners.

3. The amount of the firm capital, and a statement of the partners' cash and in-kind shares, as well as the share in the business and the value thereof.
4. The duration of the firm, if it is of a limited duration, and its start and end dates.
5. The name, personal data and powers of the manager-in-charge, unless he is subsequently appointed under a separate agreement.
6. The rights and duties of the partners.
7. The dissolution and liquidation of the firm.
8. The start and end dates of the fiscal year, along with specifying the first fiscal year.
9. Any other data.

Article 40

The name of the firm shall be derived from the name of its owner or one or more of its partners, even after their death. The name shall include the words "and Partners", and shall be followed by the expression "Civil Law Firm" or "Civil Legal Consultancy Firm", as the case may be, wherever it appears.

It shall not be permissible to use abbreviated letters or trademarks without coupling them with name of the firm.

Article 41

A Professional Register shall be established at the competent administrative division at the Ministry, for registering the firms incorporated in accordance with the provisions of the Law and this Regulation. The following data shall be recorded in said register:

1. The name, purpose and headquarters of the firm and its branches, if any.
2. The amount of the capital.
3. The number and type of shares owned by each partner, and the value paid for each share.
4. The basic data of the firm owner or the partners.
5. The name, personal data and powers of the manager-in-charge, provided that he is registered in one of the rolls of advocates or the roll of legal advisors.
6. Any amendments made to the previously recorded data.

The competent administrative division at the Ministry shall issue a registration certificate for the data recorded in the register referred to in the preceding paragraph.

Article 42

An account shall be opened for the firm (under formation) at a bank licensed to operate in the Sultanate of Oman, wherein the amount of the capital or the partners' subscribed shares shall be deposited.

The bank may not relinquish the deposit to any person whosoever, unless the firm owner or the partners, as the case may be, submit a certificate to the effect of the firm's registration in the Professional Register, or the establishment of the firm is withdrawn pursuant to a certificate issued by the Ministry.

Article 43

The firm shall publish its Memorandum of Association in the Official Gazette within fifteen (15) days from the date of its registration in the Professional Register. The firm shall not acquire legal personality and may not conduct its business until after its registration and the publication of its Memorandum of Association in the Official Gazette.

The legal personality or the Memorandum of Association of the firm may only be invoked against third parties from the date of its registration in the Professional Register and the publication of the Memorandum of Association in the Official Gazette. However, a bona fide third party may, if the firm fails to complete the registration or publication procedures, invoke the legal personality of the firm.

Article 44

No amendment may be made to the Memorandum of Association of the firm except after approval from the Committee. The firm shall publish the amendment in the Official Gazette within fifteen (15) days from the date of its registration in the Professional Register. No amendment made to the Memorandum of Association shall be invoked against third parties except from the date of its publication in the Official Gazette.

Article 45

The firm shall be managed by one or more of the partners or of the lawyers or legal advisors registered in the law office or the legal consultancy office, as the case may be.

In case of multiple managers, the decisions shall be passed by absolute majority, unless otherwise provided for in the Memorandum of Association of the firm. In the event of a tie, the managers shall present the matter to the partners to decide thereon. In this case, the decision shall be passed by absolute majority.

The manager's powers may not include whatever would prejudice the independence of the partners or the lawyers or legal advisors who are registered in the office in their practice of the profession.

Article 46

A partner at the firm may assign his share to any of the partners, or to other lawyers or legal advisors - as the case may be - subject to the approval of all partners. If the partners refuse to accept the assignment to a third party, and none of them decides to purchase the share of the partner wishing to assign it, the partners shall find another lawyer or legal advisor to replace the assignor partner within (180) one hundred and eighty days from the date of notification of the desire to assign the share, otherwise this shall result in the termination of the firm.

Article 47

If a partner's share in the firm is limited to his work, and the Memorandum of Association of the firm does not determine his share of the profit or loss, he may request a valuation of his work. Such valuation shall serve as a basis for determining his share of the profit or loss.

Article 48

If the partner makes an in-kind contribution to the firm, the type, location and value thereof shall be indicated in the Memorandum of Association, based on a report prepared by a valuation office, or an auditor licensed to practise in the Sultanate of Oman. The Committee may value such contribution by referring it to one or more experts, provided that the partner incurs the expert's fees and expenses.

If it is proven that the contribution was incorrectly valued, the contributor, the valuator and the auditor - as the case may be - shall be liable towards third parties for its estimated value in the Memorandum of Association of the firm. If it is proven that the contribution was valued at more than its real value, the contributor shall pay the difference in cash to the firm, and he shall be liable for paying the difference from his own funds.

Article 49

The profits and losses shall be distributed among the partners in the firm as provided for in its Memorandum of Association. In the absence of such a provision in the Memorandum of Association, they shall be distributed in proportion to each partner's share in the firm capital.

Any agreement that deprives one of the partners of profit-sharing or exempts him from the losses shall be deemed null and void. In this case, the partner's share of the profits or losses shall be determined in proportion to his contribution to the capital. However, the partners in the firm may agree to exempt from the losses of the firm a partner who has contributed work to the capital, provided that no consideration has been decided for his work.

Article 50

If the Committee issues a decision banning one of the partners from practising the profession, he shall promptly and fully refrain from working at the firm pending expiration of the ban.

If the Committee issues a decision to strike off one of the partners from the relevant roll or to transfer him to the roll of non-practising lawyers or legal advisors, he shall be dismissed from the firm. In this case, he shall recover his share of the firm funds according to the latest report on the firm budget. The partners shall take the necessary measures to dismiss him from the firm, and shall amend the Memorandum of Association within (15) fifteen days from the date of issuance of the decision.

Article 51

The partner in the firm shall be personally liable towards the firm and the other partners for his professional errors, and the firm shall be liable towards third parties for the errors committed by the partners.

Article 52

The competent administrative division at the Ministry may request the firm to provide it with minutes of the partners' meetings and copies of its annual financial statements as audited by an accredited auditor, by the deadlines set by the competent administrative division.

Article 53

One or more Civil Law Firms may merge into another Civil Law Firm, and one or more Civil Legal Consultancy Firms may merge into another Civil Legal Consultancy Firm, even if the firm is under liquidation.

Article 54

The merger decision shall be issued by agreement between the firms wishing to merge. The agreement shall contain the names of these firms, adequate data thereon, the name of the resulting firm, the percentages on the basis of which share ownership will be exchanged as well as the terms of their allotment.

In any case, the merger decision shall be effective only after obtaining approval from the Committee.

Article 55

The firms applying for a merger shall notify all their principals of the merger decision by one of the legally prescribed methods of announcement.

Article 56

The merger application shall be filed with the competent administrative division at the Ministry using the form prepared for this purpose, accompanied by the required documents, after payment of the prescribed fee.

The competent administrative division at the Ministry shall examine the application after completion of the documents set out in the form, within fifteen (15) days from the date of its filing, and shall refer it to the Committee for deciding thereon.

Article 57

The merger decision shall be published in the Official Gazette within fifteen (15) days from the date of the Committee's approval. The merging firm shall replace the merged firms in all their rights and obligations from the date of publication of the merger decision.

Article 58

The firm shall be terminated by the death of the firm owner, unless the shares of the heirs are combined into a single person who is a lawyer or a legal advisor, and he chooses that the firm will continue to exist within a maximum of sixty (60) days from the date of death. In case of multiple heirs who are lawyers or legal advisors, they may request its continuation and the acquisition of status of partner within a maximum of ninety (90) days from the date of death. In any case, the heirs other than lawyers or legal advisors shall waive the share of their legator within ninety (90) days from the date of his death, in accordance with the waiver provisions stipulated in Article (46) of this Regulation. The death of a partner shall not entail the termination of the firm if it is formed of two or more partners. His heirs shall not acquire the status of partner unless he is a lawyer or legal advisor, and they shall waive the share of their legator within (90) ninety days from the date of his death in accordance with the waiver provisions stipulated in Article (46) of this Regulation.

Article 59

In the event of the withdrawal or death of the partner whom the firm is named after or whose name is included in the firm name, the name of the firm shall be amended within (30) thirty days from the date of withdrawal or death. The firm may continue to bear his name or to include his name in its name with his written consent or the written consent of his heirs, as the case may be.

Article 60

The firm shall be dissolved on the grounds stipulated in the Memorandum of Association. It shall also be dissolved on the following grounds:

1. The firm does not practise its activity or it ceases to do so for a period exceeding (180) one hundred and eighty consecutive days.
2. The specified term of the firm expires.
3. The purpose of establishment of the firm ends or its achievement proves to be impossible.
4. Upon the request of the firm owner or the agreement of the partners to dissolve the firm.
5. A court ruling is issued to dissolve the firm upon the request of the concerned parties or the Committee.

Article 61

The firm shall be considered to be dissolved from the date of its owner's request to dissolve it, the partners' agreement or the issuance of a final court ruling to this effect, as the case may be. The manager-in-charge at the firm shall deposit the liquidation decision or the court ruling ordering liquidation with the Committee within fifteen (15) days from the date of its issuance. The liquidation decision or the operative part of the liquidation ruling shall be published in the Official Gazette within seven (7) days from the date of deposit, at the expense of the firm owner or the partners.

The firm shall enter into the liquidation phase upon its dissolution, while retaining its juristic personality to the extent necessary for the liquidation process. The phrase "under liquidation" shall be added to its name during the liquidation period.

Article 62

The powers of all those authorised to manage the firm shall terminate from the date of its dissolution. Whoever carries out an action or disposition in the name of the firm as of that date shall be liable for the effects and obligations arising from such action or disposition from their own funds. If the action or disposition is carried out by more than one person, they shall be jointly liable.

However, the managers shall continue to discharge their duties and they shall be liable as trustees of the firm assets until a liquidator is appointed and he assumes his duties.

Article 63

The decision of the firm owner, the agreement of the partners or the court ruling to liquidate the firm shall include the appointment of one or more liquidators, the determination of their fees and the required period for completing the liquidation. The liquidator shall be licensed to practise the accounting and auditing profession and shall be accredited by the competent authority.

The liquidator's term of office shall not exceed the period specified in the decision of the firm owner, the partners' agreement or the court ruling ordering liquidation. This term may be extended by a decision of the Committee or pursuant to an order on petition by the president of the competent court if the liquidation is ordered pursuant to a court ruling. Where the liquidator's term of office is not specified, it shall not exceed a period of three (3) years extendable by a decision of the Committee or pursuant to an order on petition by the president of the competent court if the liquidation is ordered pursuant to a court ruling.

Article 64

The liquidator shall be dismissed by a decision of the firm owner or an agreement among the partners if the liquidator was appointed by them, or pursuant to an order on petition by the president of the court that has issued the liquidation ruling including the appointment of the liquidator. The decision, agreement or order shall include the appointment of a substitute for the dismissed liquidator.

Article 65

The liquidation shall be conducted as provided for in the decision of the firm owner, the partners' agreement or the court ruling ordering it. If none of them contains a provision to this effect, the following procedures shall be followed:

1. The liquidator shall notify all creditors by registered letters to their addresses recorded with the firm of the commencement of liquidation along with inviting them to submit their claims against the firm. If the creditors' addresses are unknown, they shall be notified and invited to submit their claims by publication in a widely circulated daily newspaper. In any case, the announcement shall grant creditors a time limit of (180) one hundred and eighty days from the date of publication to submit their claims. The liquidator shall make the announcement within (7) seven days from the date of deposit of the liquidation decision or ruling with the Committee.
2. All valid claims made against the firm shall be settled, taking into account the ranking of the debts when settling them, after payment of the liquidation expenses, the liquidator's fees and the fees of the firm business inventory committee stipulated in Article (73) of this Regulation.
3. The remaining assets shall be distributed to the firm owner or among the partners in accordance with the Memorandum of Association. Where the Memorandum of Association does not include a provision to this effect, they shall be distributed in proportion to the contribution of each of them to the firm capital. If the net assets are not sufficient to cover the full value of the shares as specified in the Memorandum of Association, the deficit shall be distributed among the partners at the same percentage of the deductible for losses.

Article 66

The liquidator shall comply with the following:

1. Depositing the decision or the court ruling appointing him with the Committee within fifteen (15) days from the date of issuance of the decision or the ruling. The appointment of the liquidator may not be invoked against third parties except from the date of deposit.
2. Inventorying the firm assets and liabilities jointly with the firm auditor or manager-in-charge - if any. A detailed list shall be drawn up to this effect and financial statements shall be prepared for the firm, each signed by the liquidator, the managers and the auditor.
3. Receiving the firm funds, books, assets and documents. He shall keep a book for recording the liquidation operations, follow the generally accepted accounting rules in keeping said book and enable the firm owner or the partners and the creditors to review same.

4. Including in all contracts, receipts and any other documents issued by the firm the explicit phrase "under liquidation".

Article 67

Subject to the provision of Article (66) of this Regulation and to any restriction stipulated in the liquidation decision or court ruling, the liquidator shall manage the business of the firm, take all necessary measures to preserve its assets and fulfil its rights as well as take all necessary actions to liquidate its assets and settle its debts. He shall particularly represent the firm before third parties and before the courts as stipulated in the Commercial Companies Law, in respect of any action taken by or against it.

If the liquidation decision or court ruling includes the appointment of more than one liquidator, they shall act jointly unless the decision or the ruling authorises them to act individually. They shall be jointly liable for compensating the damage suffered by the firm, the firm owner, the partners and third parties as a result of overstepping their powers or as a result of errors they may commit in the discharge of their duties.

Article 68

The liquidator shall deposit the amounts he collects in the name of the firm under liquidation in its account at a bank licensed in the Sultanate of Oman, within one day at most from collecting them.

The liquidator may not waive any insurance or guarantee, or accept any insurance for the firm at less than its current value.

The liquidator may not sell the firm assets and projects in bulk except after obtaining approval from the firm owner or the partners, or approval from the competent court, unless the decision or the ruling issued to appoint the liquidator stipulates the permissibility of selling them in bulk.

Article 69

The liquidator may not start new business unless it is necessary to complete previous business. If the liquidator undertakes new business that is not required by the liquidation, he shall be liable for such business in all his assets. In case of multiple liquidators, they shall be jointly liable.

Article 70

The liquidator shall terminate the liquidation within the specified period. If the liquidation process extends for more than one year, he shall prepare a report on the liquidation process for the past year, and the financial statements for this year, and send same to the firm owner or the partners and the Committee within (30) thirty days at most from the end of the year.

Article 71

The firm shall be bound by the actions and dispositions carried out by the liquidator in its name, if such actions and dispositions are required by the liquidation. The liquidator shall be liable towards the firm, its owner, the partners and third parties for any damage resulting from the actions or dispositions he carries out in violation of the provisions of the laws in force, for his actions that exceed the limits of his powers, for any fraud, forgery or negligence in the discharge of his duties and for his failure to act as would a man of prudence. In case of multiple liquidators, they shall be jointly liable unless each of them has the right to act individually in accordance with the decision or ruling appointing them.

Article 72

Upon completion of the liquidation, the liquidator shall submit a final report, and a final account on the liquidation process audited by the firm auditor to the firm owner or the partners and the creditors within (30) thirty days from the completion of the liquidation process for approval and for notification of a copy thereof to the Committee within that period.

Article 73

A committee for inventorying the business of the firm under liquidation, comprised of lawyers or legal advisors, as the case may be, shall be formed by a decision of the Committee within (7) seven days from the date of depositing the decision to appoint the liquidator therewith. Said committee shall prepare an inventory of all cases and business at the firm, handle the outstanding ones or refer them, with the Committee's approval, to other lawyers or legal advisors. It shall also take the necessary measures to protect the rights of the principals and clients of the firm. The firm shall be prohibited from accepting new cases or business.

The committee shall coordinate with the liquidator regarding its work, and shall deliver the collected amounts within one day for deposit into the account of the firm under liquidation referred to in Article (68) of this Regulation.

The committee's fees shall be determined in agreement with the firm owner or the partners or by a decision of the Committee in the event of disagreement.

Article 74

The firm business inventory committee stipulated in Article (73) of this Regulation shall deposit a report on the completion of its work with the competent administrative division at the Ministry to present it to the Committee for approval.

Article 75

The liquidation process shall be completed with the firm owner's or the partners' approval of the final report and the final account. The liquidator shall deposit a copy of their approval of the completion of liquidation with the Committee within (7) seven days of the date of its issuance. The competent administrative division at the Ministry shall delete the firm from the Professional Register as of the date of issuance of the Committee's decision declaring the liquidation process complete. The liquidator shall publish this decision in the Official Gazette at the expense of the firm owner or the partners.

In any case, the liquidation process shall not be completed until after the business inventory committee stipulated in Article (73) of this Regulation has completed its work, and its report has been approved by the Committee.

Article 76

If the firm owner or the partners do not approve the final report and the final account, the liquidator may present the disputed issues to the competent court, and request the nullity of the rejection decision. The liquidator shall deposit a copy of the judgement issued in the case with the Committee within (15) fifteen days from the date of its issuance.

If the judgment rules the nullity of the decision of the firm owner or the partners and the completion of liquidation, it shall be published and the firm shall be deregistered in accordance with Article (75) of this Regulation, as of the date of deposit of the judgment.

If the judgment upholds the decision of the firm owner or the partners, the liquidator may be dismissed and another one appointed to complete the liquidation process.

Article 77

The provisions regarding single person companies and limited liability companies stipulated in both the Commercial Companies Law and its Implementing Regulation shall apply to the firm - regarding what is not specifically provided for in this Regulation, and in a manner not inconsistent with its nature.

Chapter 5 - Licensing Law Offices and Legal Consultancy Offices and Branches Thereof

Article 78

The Office licensing application shall be filed using the form prepared for this purpose, and it shall be accompanied with the following data and documents:

1. The basic data of the applicant.
2. A copy of his professional registration certificate.
3. A copy of the contract for the proposed Office premises.
4. A copy of the professional liability insurance policy in accordance with the provision of Article (82) of this Regulation.
5. Proof of payment of the prescribed fee.
6. Any other data or documents.

Article 79

The competent administrative division at the Ministry shall inspect the proposed premises for the Office subject of the licensing application to assess the extent of its fulfilment of all the requirements and technical specifications approved by the Ministry.

If the proposed Office premises do not meet the requirements and specifications, the competent administrative division at the Ministry may grant the licence applicant a time limit not exceeding (180) one hundred and eighty days to address any deficiencies, otherwise the licence application shall be deemed null and void, and this shall entail no effects against the Committee or the Ministry.

Article 80

The competent administrative division at the Ministry shall examine the Office licensing application, and decide thereon within (15) fifteen days from the date of completion of all documents and data for the licensing application and fulfilment by the Office of all the requirements and technical specifications approved by the Ministry. A licence certificate shall be issued using the form prepared by the Ministry.

In the event that the application is rejected, the rejection decision shall be grounded. An appeal may be filed against the rejection decision with the Minister within (30) thirty days from the date of issuance of the decision or the lapse of said period.

Article 81

The Office licence term shall be of (3) three years, renewable for other terms.

The application for licence renewal of the Office shall be filed at least (120) one hundred and twenty days prior to the specified expiration date of the licence, using the form prepared for this purpose, and accompanied with a statement of the work it has undertaken during the term of the licence, after payment of the prescribed fee.

Article 82

The Office owner shall submit to the competent administrative division at the Ministry proof that the Office to be licensed has a professional liability insurance policy issued by a licensed insurance company. The value of the insurance policy shall be as follows according to the licence issued to the Office owner:

1. Primary courts: (25,000) twenty-five thousand rials.
2. Courts of appeal: (40,000) forty thousand rials.
3. Supreme Court: (50,000) fifty thousand rials.
4. Legal consultancy: (50,000) fifty thousand rials.

Article 83

An Office may not open more than (2) two branches excluding the head office, and it shall not be permissible to open more than one branch in a single governorate. The following requirements shall be met to open an Office branch:

1. The branch shall be in the name of the Office itself.
2. The Office shall have been established for at least (5) five years.
3. A branch manager shall be appointed from among the lawyers or legal advisors registered therein, as the case may be.
4. There shall not be less than (5) five lawyers or legal advisors registered in the Office, provided that at least one of them is a trainee lawyer in case of a law office.
5. A professional liability insurance policy shall be submitted in accordance with Article (82) of this Regulation.
6. The approval of the Committee shall be obtained.

Article 84

The application for opening an Office branch shall be filed with the competent administrative division at the Ministry, using the form prepared for this purpose and accompanied with the data and documents specified therein, after payment of the prescribed fee. The application shall include the following in particular:

1. The basic data of the applicant.
2. A copy of the Office licence certificate.
3. A copy of the professional liability insurance policy in accordance with Article (82) of this Regulation.
4. A copy of the contract for the proposed Office branch, provided that it meets all the requirements and technical specifications approved by the Ministry.
5. A statement of the number of lawyers or legal advisors working at the main office and the branches.
6. A statement of the volume and types of business and cases handled by the Office for the last three years prior to filing the application.

The competent administrative division at the Ministry shall examine the application and decide thereon pursuant to the procedures stipulated in Articles (79), (80) and (81) of this Regulation.

Article 85

It shall not be permissible to change or make any modification to the main office or any of the branches of the Office except after obtaining the approval of the competent administrative division at the Ministry, based on an electronic application filed to that effect. It shall not be permissible to use the main office or any of the branches of the Office for other than its licensing purpose.

The competent administrative division at the Ministry shall inspect the proposed main office or branch pursuant to the procedures stipulated in Article (79) of this Regulation.

Article 86

> The text of Article 86 was replaced pursuant to Oman Ministerial Decision No. 208/2025 dated 18/12/2025, to read as follows:

The owner of an office, who wishes to install a sign at the entrance of the law office or legal consultancy office, may obtain the approval of the competent administrative division at the Ministry, provided that the sign complies with the following specifications:

1. It shall indicate the name of the office, its owner, and its partners (if any).
2. It shall indicate the legal qualifications of the office owner and the partners (if any).
3. The dimensions of the sign shall not exceed one hundred (100) centimeters in height and one hundred (100) centimeters in width.

An external sign may also be installed on the law office or legal consultancy office, subject to compliance with the following requirements:

1. It shall include the name of the office in accordance with the provisions of Article (40) of the Implementing Regulation of the aforesaid Advocacy and Legal Consultancy Law.
2. It shall include the phrase “Main Office” or the word “Branch”, as the case may be, and the professional registration number.
3. The lettering shall be in black, and the background shall be in white.
4. The wording shall be linguistically correct.
5. The sign shall consist of three-dimensional individual letters with internal lighting, or any modern lighting method affixed to a supporting background panel.
6. The main structural frame shall be coated with two layers of corrosion-resistant paint of type (S M), in the required size and thickness.
7. The dimensions of the external sign shall not exceed one hundred (100) centimeters in height and three hundred (300) centimeters in width.
8. The language used on external signs shall be Standard Arabic. English may be used, provided that it appears to the left of or below the Arabic text, that the area occupied by the Arabic text is not less than that occupied by the English text, and that the translation is accurate and serves the intended purpose.
9. The content of the sign shall not contravene the applicable laws, regulations, or decisions, nor religious values, public order, or public morals.

In all cases, the signs shall be removed upon the closure of the law office or legal consultancy office, or upon relocation to another premises.

Chapter 6 - Complaints and Violations

Article 87

The concerned parties may file a complaint against a lawyer or legal advisor with the Committee, after paying the prescribed fee, if the complaint pertains to a violation of the provisions of the Law and this Regulation, the decisions issued in implementation thereof or the Code of Professional Conduct and Ethics of the profession, or to his breach of his professional duties, or to his conduct that is prejudicial to honour or demeans the profession.

If the competent administrative division at the Ministry finds out that the lawyer has committed such violations, it may prepare a report and submit it to the Committee.

Article 88

A complaint shall not be accepted if it does not include the name, signature, residence, telephone number or any other contact details of the person filing it as well as a summary of the facts of the complaint, unless it includes facts that the Chairman of the Committee deems worthy of investigation. The complaint shall also not be accepted if it is filed after the lapse of (180) one hundred and eighty days from the date of occurrence of the violation unless the complaint pertains to the suspicion of committing a criminal offence, or the violation or its effect still persist up to the date of filing the complaint.

Article 89

The Committee shall refer the complaint filed against the lawyer or legal advisor and the violations they have committed to the competent administrative division at the Ministry for examination. The results of the examination shall be presented to the Committee for deciding thereon, either to dismiss the complaint if it proven to be frivolous, or to refer it for investigation, or to refer it to the competent authority if the violation or incident subject of the complaint constitutes a criminal offence.

Article 90

The competent administrative division at the Ministry shall investigate the lawyer or legal advisor who has committed the violation or is the subject of the complaint, and he shall be notified of the date of investigation by one of the means and methods of notification stipulated in Article (94) of this Regulation, at least seven (7) days prior to the investigation hearing. The notification shall specify the acts attributed to him, and the date and place of the hearing.

Article 91

The Committee may - whenever it deems so necessary - summon the lawyer or legal advisor referred for accountability to appear before it in person, by one of the means and methods of notification stipulated in Article (94) of this Regulation, at least seven (7) days prior to the date of the hearing. The notification shall specify the acts attributed to him, and the date and place of the hearing.

The lawyer or legal advisor may appoint a defence lawyer, and in the event of his non-appearance without a reason acceptable to the Committee, the accountability proceedings may be conducted.

Article 92

The Committee may, on its own initiative or at the request of the competent administrative division at the Ministry or the lawyer or legal advisor referred for accountability, summon witnesses whose testimony it deems useful. If a witness fails to appear without an excuse acceptable to the Committee, or he refuses to testify, or he commits perjury, the Committee shall refer him to the competent authority.

Article 93

The accountability hearings or the appearance before the Committee for the accountability of the lawyer or legal advisor shall be confidential. The Committee shall issue its decision by a majority vote of the Committee members present after hearing the defence of the lawyer or legal advisor referred for accountability or his lawyer. In case of a tie, the side of the chair of the meeting shall prevail. The unanimous consent of the Committee members present shall be required for imposing the penalty of striking the name off the roll.

In any case, the decision of the Committee shall be grounded.

Article 94

The Committee's decisions shall be final, and they shall be notified to the concerned parties by one of the following methods or means of notification

1. Sending them by SMS to the telephone number registered with the Ministry.
2. Sending them by email to the address registered with the Ministry.
3. Sending them via the electronic system established by the Ministry.
4. Delivering them by hand or sending them by registered mail.
